A. INCLUSIVE FEE FOR THE FALL AND SPRING TERMS

The inclusive fee for resident undergraduates for the academic year 2018-2019 is $69,430. It includes tuition, room, board, library, laboratory, gymnasium, and (for seniors) graduation fees. The fee also covers network services, which include an Ethernet data connection at every desk and full wi-fi coverage; a telephone line in each suite; voicemail for each student; and “basic” cable television service (39 channels) in each suite. Students can, at additional cost, request private telephone lines and an expanded cable television service.

The yearly tuition fee for nonresident students is $53,430 ($26,715 for the fall term and $26,715 for the spring term). It includes all the items named above except room, board, and network services. The yearly room charge is $9,000 ($4,500 for the fall term and $4,500 for the spring term); the yearly board charge is $7,000 ($3,500 for the fall term and $3,500 for the spring term).

All students, whether resident or nonresident, will also be charged a yearly hospitalization and prescription coverage fee of $2,402 by Yale Health, unless it is waived upon presentation of evidence that a student has valid and sufficient alternative hospitalization/specialty care coverage. Coverage for the fall term only is $1,201; coverage for the spring term only is $1,201. An online waiver indicating that a student wishes to waive this plan must be submitted to the Yale Health Member Services Department by September 15, 2018, for the fall term and by January 31, 2019, for the spring term.

Additional charges will be made for such optional or incidental items as attendance at Yale Summer Session, individual instruction in the School of Music, special materials in art courses, special examinations, library fines, fines for a late course schedule and course schedule changes, damage to University property caused by the student, and the like.

B. PAYMENT OF BILLS

The official means of communicating monthly financial account statements is through the University’s Internet-based system for electronic billing and payment, Yale University eBill-ePay. Yale does not mail paper bills.

Student account statements are prepared and made available twelve times each year, at the beginning of each month. Payment is due in full by 4 p.m. Eastern time on the first business day of the following month. E-mail notifications that the account statement is available on the eBill-ePay website are sent to all students at their official Yale e-mail addresses and to all student-designated proxies. It is imperative that all students monitor their Yale e-mail accounts on an ongoing basis.

Yale University eBill-ePay is the preferred method of payment. Electronic payments are easy and convenient, and payments are immediately posted to student accounts. There is no charge for this service. Bank information is password-protected and secure, and there is a printable confirmation receipt. Payments can be made until 4 p.m. Eastern time on the due date to avoid late fees. Students have full control over access to their accounts, and student-designated proxies can be authorized to make payments electronically from their own computers using Yale’s system.

For those who choose to pay by check, a remittance advice with mailing instructions are included with the online bill available on the eBill-ePay website.

A bill for one-half the inclusive fee will be available beginning the first week of July. Payment will be due by 4 p.m. Eastern time on August 1. A bill for the balance will be available beginning the first week of November; payment of the balance will be due by 4 p.m. Eastern time on December 1. The Yale Payment Plan (YPP), which is administered by the University’s Office of Student Financial Services, enables students and families to pay all or a portion of the term bill in ten monthly installments beginning in May preceding the academic year. Families who elect to participate pay an enrollment fee of $100 per plan. Information about the plan is available on the Student Accounts website at student-accounts.yale.edu/ypp or by calling Student Financial Services at 203-432-2700.

Information about supplemental loan plans may be obtained from the Student Financial Services Center at 246 Church Street. (See “Financial Aid.”)

A late charge will be assessed if any part of the inclusive fee is not paid when due. For payments due on August 1, but not received on or before that date, a late charge will be imposed as follows:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>If Payment in Full is Not Received</th>
<th>Late Charge</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>By August 1 at 4 p.m.</td>
<td>$125</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>By September 1 at 4 p.m.</td>
<td>An additional $125</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>By October 1 at 4 p.m.</td>
<td>An additional $125</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

For payments due on December 1 but not received on or before that date, the late charge is as follows:
If Payment in Full is Not Received | Late Charge
---|---
By December 1 at 4 p.m. | $125
By January 1 at 4 p.m. | An additional $125
By February 1 at 4 p.m. | An additional $125

Students who have not paid or made arrangements for payment of their term bills by the due date will be placed on hold until these financial obligations have been settled. University regulations require that all financial obligations to the University be paid as a condition of enrollment.

Students who cancel a leave of absence or a Year or Term Abroad are subject to the deadlines outlined above. Those whose payments have not been received by Yale by August 1 (for a fall term) or December 1 (for a spring term) are subject to the late charges as outlined above.

All payments must be made in U.S. currency and checks must be drawn on a U.S. bank.

A processing charge of $25 will be assessed for a payment returned for any reason by the bank on which it was drawn.

C. PAYMENT OF BILLS, ACADEMIC TRANSCRIPTS, AND DIPLOMAS

No student will be able to secure an academic transcript unless all financial obligations to the University have been fulfilled. Similarly, no student will be awarded a diploma until all financial obligations have been fulfilled.

D. REBATES OF UNDERGRADUATE CHARGES

1. Withdrawal on or before the Fifteenth Day of a Term. A student who withdraws for any reason on or before the fifteenth day of a term (September 12, 2018, in the fall term and January 28, 2019, in the spring term) will not be held responsible for the tuition, room, and board fees for that term. However, a resident student will be assessed a per diem housing charge for each day up to and including the day on which the student relinquishes the room. A student with a meal contract will be charged the guest rate per day for board through the date on which the student provides written notification of withdrawal to the Yale Dining Business Office, 246 Church Street. A nonresident student with the Dining Services Eli Bucks Plan will be charged only for meals actually taken.

2. Withdrawal after the First Fifteen Days but during the First Quarter of a Term. A student who withdraws for any reason after the fifteenth day of a term but on or before the last day of the first quarter of the term (September 22, 2018, in the fall term and February 9, 2019, in the spring term) will be given a rebate of one-half (50%) of the tuition, room, and board fees due or paid for that term. A resident student will be assessed a per diem housing charge for each day from the date of withdrawal up to and including the day on which the student relinquishes the room. A student with a meal contract will be charged the guest rate per meal for meals taken from the date of withdrawal through the date on which the student provides written notification of withdrawal to the Yale Dining Business Office, 246 Church Street. A nonresident student with the Dining Services Eli Bucks Plan will be charged only for meals actually taken.

3. Withdrawal after the First Quarter but on or before Midterm. A student who withdraws for any reason after the first quarter of a term but on or before the day of midterm (October 26, 2018, in the fall term and March 8, 2019, in the spring term) will be given a rebate of one-quarter (25%) of the tuition, room, and board fees due or paid for that term. A resident student will be assessed a per diem housing charge for each day from the date of withdrawal up to and including the day on which the student relinquishes the room. A student with a meal contract will be charged the per diem assessment for board taken from the date of withdrawal through the date on which the student provides written notification of withdrawal to the Yale Dining Business Office, 246 Church Street. A nonresident student with the Dining Services Eli Bucks Plan will be charged only for meals actually taken.

4. Withdrawal after Midterm. A student who withdraws for any reason after midterm (October 26, 2018, in the fall term and March 8, 2019, in the spring term) will not be given a rebate of any portion of the tuition, room, and board fees due or paid for that term.

5. Required Withdrawal for Academic or Disciplinary Reasons. A student who is required to withdraw during a term because of unsatisfactory academic performance or disciplinary reasons in the previous term will have his or her financial aid prorated based upon the number of days the student was enrolled in the current term. The student will not be charged the inclusive fee for the current term even if the withdrawal occurs after the fifteenth day of the term. The student will, however, be charged for room and board on the basis described in Section D.1., “Withdrawal on or before the Fifteenth Day of a Term.”

6. Health Services. A student who withdraws from the University on or before the fifteenth day of the term will not be held responsible for the tuition fee for that term and as a result will not be eligible for any Yale Health benefits. Under such circumstances, the student will be refunded the premium fee(s) paid for Yale Health Hospitalization/Specialty Coverage and, if applicable, for Yale Health Prescription Plus Coverage. The student’s Yale Health membership will be terminated retroactively to the start of the term and any services rendered and/or claims paid will be billed to the student on a fee-for-service basis.

A student who withdraws from the University after the first fifteen days will be covered by Yale Health for 30 days following the date of withdrawal, or to the last day of the term, whichever comes first. A student who is hospitalized on the date of withdrawal or during the 30-day extension and has Yale Health Hospitalization/Specialty Coverage and Yale Health Prescription Plus Coverage...
In all cases students are encouraged to contact Yale Student Financial Services to inquire about the consequences of withdrawal. The schedule is based in part on the rebate of charges as previously indicated.

For purposes of determining the refund of institutional aid funds, any student who withdraws from Yale College for any reason on or before Midterm will be subject to a pro rata schedule which determines the amount of institutional aid funds a student has earned at the time of withdrawal. This schedule is based in part on the rebate of charges as previously indicated.

In all cases students are encouraged to contact Yale Student Financial Services to inquire about the consequences of withdrawal.
Recipients of Federal and/or institutional loans who graduate or withdraw are required to have an Exit Interview before leaving Yale. Students leaving Yale receive instructions on completing this process from Yale Student Financial Services.

13. Strikes, Work Stoppages, "Job Actions," and the Like. Except as provided herein, no rebates of tuition or any other fees will be given to a student, nor may any room contract be rescinded, on account of the interruption, as the result of a strike, work stoppage, "job action," etc., of any services customarily furnished by the University or of any activities customarily conducted by or at the University. In the event of the interruption of dining hall service on account of a strike, work stoppage, "job action," etc., the University will make arrangements for appropriate refunds, or provide an alternate service, on a temporary basis, to students who have contracted for meals.

14. Temporary Suspension of University Operations. In the unlikely event that public health or other significant safety or security concerns cause the University temporarily to suspend University programs and operations, the University will make arrangements for appropriate refunds, consistent with the principles enunciated in these Regulations, as may in its judgment be warranted in light of all the circumstances of the suspension and consistent with applicable law and regulations. The decision to suspend programs shall be made at the discretion and judgment of the University.
