

SUMMER COURSES IN ART

The Yale School of Art participates in the Yale Summer Session by offering five-week courses in drawing, graphic design, photography, sculpture, animation, and painting. Yale Summer Session offers undergraduate courses for credit and awards the equivalent of three term-hours' credit for each course successfully completed. Classes are held two times a week on campus; additional studio time may also be available. Yale Summer Session 2021 takes place from June 28 through July 30. Admission is not limited to Yale students but is open also to undergraduates who wish to study in an environment different from that of their home institution, to college graduates who wish to explore other fields of study, and to qualified high school or precollege students who will have completed their junior year of high school before summer classes begin.

Further information on residency, scholarships, application forms, important dates and deadlines, and tuition may be found on the Yale Summer Session website at <http://summer.yale.edu>. Inquiries may be made by telephone at 203.432.2430 or by e-mail to summer.session@yale.edu. Applications are considered as they are received, with a decision concerning admission following shortly thereafter. Class size for each art course is limited depending upon the nature of the course. There is an application fee of $75.
