RETURN OF STUDENT WORK

It is crucial that instructors return all student work in a timely manner. The failure to do so constitutes one of the chief obstacles to student learning. Without your feedback, students cannot improve where necessary and lack clarity about their understanding of the course material.