

REINSTATED STUDENTS

Students who have withdrawn from Yale College or who have been required to withdraw may normally in due course apply for reinstatement according to the procedures administered by the Committee on Reinstatement of the Yale College Dean's Office. Candidates for reinstatement are occasionally referred by the chair of the committee to their directors of undergraduate studies to discuss the courses that they should take while withdrawn, in order to prepare for reinstatement, or the courses they will take after their return.

The chair of the Committee on Reinstatement is Risa Sodi (risa.sodi@yale.edu), assistant dean of Yale College.
