The five-year B.A.–B.S./M.P.P. degree program  The B.A.–B.S./M.P.P. degree program in Global Affairs offers Yale College students interested in the field of global affairs the opportunity to earn a bachelor’s degree from Yale College and a M.P.P. degree from the Jackson School of Global Affairs in a five-year joint program.

Undergraduate requirements  In their four years of Yale College enrollment, students complete a standard Yale College major which consists of at least 36 course credits; 32 of which must be Yale College undergraduate approved courses credits. The remaining 4 course credits of the required 36 for a Yale College degree are typically taken at the Jackson School of Global Affairs in order to fulfill the M.P.P. degree requirements. Students may take additional Jackson courses while at Yale College, as long as they complete the required 32 undergraduate courses.

Master’s program requirements  Students accepted into the program must complete a total of 12 course credits, including Jackson’s core courses, demonstrate proficiency in a modern language (L4), and complete an approved summer internship or a project. Students must also maintain a grade average of High Pass with at least two Honors grades. All students must complete Jackson’s non-credit leadership and ethics training workshop, which takes place in August the week prior to the beginning of their fifth year. During the fifth year, students are in full-time residence at the Jackson School of Global Affairs and must complete at least 8 course credits.

Admission requirements  Students apply to the B.A.–B.S./M.P.P. program in the spring term of the junior year. Applicants must complete an application form and submit all undergraduate transcripts, two letters of recommendation (at least one from an instructor in a Yale course), one personal statement, and approval by the dean of the student’s residential college. Applications are submitted online through the Jackson School of Global Affairs. Questions about admissions should be directed to Assistant Dean, Asha Rangappa (asha.rangappa@yale.edu).
