

FELLOWSHIPS

William Wirt Winchester Traveling Fellowship (1895). Awarded each year to the graduating students in architecture whose academic performance has been consistently at the highest level, who have displayed the most promise and potential for a future professional role, and who have completed a piece of distinguished independent work. It provides an opportunity for study and travel outside the United States and is considered to be the School's most prestigious award. Awarded to Alice Cochrane and Antonio Velasco Gonzalez.

Gertraud A. Wood Traveling Fellowship (1983). Awarded each year to an outstanding second-year student in the first professional degree program on financial aid for travel outside of the United States. Awarded to Julia Edwards.

George Nelson Scholarship (1988). Awarded each year through a competitive application process to a second-year student in the first professional degree program for support for an independent course of study. Recipients shall demonstrate skill as a designer, interest in critical thought, and the ability to express ideas in written and verbal form. Awarded to Sam Boakye and Tony Musleh.

Bryan Maddock '14 Summer Nomad Fellowship (2024). Established by Bryan Maddock (M.Arch. 2014) to support student travel during the summer following their second year. Awarded to J.C. Ardila.
