

WEN

The class scheduling module, WEN, allows you to schedule classes per term for the entire academic year. WEN has functionality that allows you to set up specific course parameters to help with course registration, such as maximum enrollment, instructor permission, and registration holds. It is also the place where you create discussion sections for seminars and lectures as needed.